Rotary News

The June issue of the District newsletter included the DG's message, a polio update, selection of the Club of the Month, info on Peace Fellowship applications, and a feature on 100 Men Who Cook. Old National Bank VP Shane Carsrud was pictured presenting a symbolic check for $62,799 to DG Tom Ripperda. The issue was published 1 July.

PDG Tom mentioned the 100 Men Who Cook event in his message, noting "it was a challenge [that] no one club could have done" and citing it as an example of fellowship as well as a worthy charitable activity.

Polio. A total of 55 new cases of polio has been reported through 12 June, including new cases in the Horn of Africa, which had been polio-free in 2012. New cases this year: Afghanistan, 12; Nigeria, 25; Pakistan, 14; Horn of Africa, 14.

Red Bud. The RC -Red Bud was named "Club of the Month" for a project providing wheelchair access for a local special needs youth, age 9.

Peace Fellows. The Rotary Peace Fellowship is an educational program leading to a Master's degree or a Professional Development Certificate, both for the purpose of supportin Rotary's mission to advance world understanding, peace, and goodwill.

Committee Roles

PE Randy informed members about committee roles and choices for 2013-14, using the club organization chart and working list of member assignments to committees.

After some discussion of opportunities, members present in turn voiced their preference(s) for assignments. These were recorded and added to the working list of assignments for re-publication.

In open discussion, it was decided to combine the Social Committee and the Family of Rotary Committee. The role includes caring for Rotary's extended family by remembering birthdays and anniversaries, assisting when "family" members are sick or having personal issues, sharing in grief after a death in the family, and celebrating births, weddings, and graduations, and similar actions. "Family" is defined to include Rotaract, Interact, Rotary alumni, Youth Exchange students, Inner Wheel, and family members of Rotarians. [Source: Club Administration Committee Manual]

Members who did not attend the 25 June meeting are asked to indicate committee assignment preferences to President Randy.
