Chamber of Commerce

Executive Director Les O'Dell shared a whirlwind overview of the scope and depth of the Chamber and its wide-ranging activities. He described the organization as "cheerleaders" and "connectors" with more than 400 members, ranging in size from sole proprietors to SIH's thousands.

Along the path, he mentioned, among others, such activities as Business Builder Breakfasts ... member-to-member marketing ... seminars and workshops ... Paw Prints ... after-hours ... open houses ... ribbon cuttings ... "shop local" initiatives ... website development ... the "Hidden SIU" tour ... the new "Hidden Carbondale" tour (23 September)... a growing annual banquet (20 February 2015) ... the Small Business Development Center at SIUC ...

Other/future initiatives are the American Express Shop Small Program, Neighborhood Champion ... a joint "Shop Southern Illinois First" campaign with other area chambers ...election-related support for and promotion of pro-business candidates.

The purpose of the Chamber is to upgrade the socio-economic level of the Carbondale area and the people living here ... promote new and existing business and support entrepreneurial efforts and economic development in the Carbondale region. "It is our desire that you discover reasons why Carbondale, Illinois is a great place to live, work, visit, play and invest!"

The Communicator, the Chamber newsletter, is a tool for learning about Chamber members, advertising opportunities, and pertinent business information.
